THE SARATOGA MEETING.

The always popular Saratoga meeting begins Monday, August 4, with bright prospects of good racing in which many good western horses will clash with the eastern racing stars. The program book of the meeting is out and is one to elicit hearty approval.

The big stakes are, of course, mostly guaranteed events, as the association, which has practically a population of only twenty-five thousand from which to draw its attendance, could hardly afford to add from $5,000 to $10,000 to its stakes.

Added money to the overnight races compares favorably with that of the metropolitan tracks, with a population of five million to look for support.

There are one hundred and five overnight races in the program book, which covers twenty-two days' racing. Of these sixty-eight have $600 added, thirty-three have $700, and four have $800, making the average for the overnight purses about $650.

The stakes have all filled well, and the names of the best eastern and western horses are to be found in the lists of the important events. Prominent among the names of those who have heretofore confined their operations almost exclusively to the west are George C. Bennett, John A. Drake, G. A. Davis, who owns Articulate; Burlingame Stock Farm, C. R. Ellison and others.

The added money stakes will be of sufficient value to attract good fields of first-class material. For instance, the Troy, a stake for two-year-olds, with only $1,000 added, will, with ten starters, be worth in the neighborhood of $3,500 to the winner.

Some of the selling races are framed so that good horses can get in at weights ranging from 105 to 110 pounds and at a price somewhere near their real value. This will have the effect of bringing good horses together at a weight arrangement that assures sparkling contests.

The jumpers are well taken care of. There are four stakes for horses of this class, as well as several overnight purses, which include races for qualified hunters, to be ridden by gentlemen riders. All told, the book offers great promise to those who will take part in the meeting.

Concerning the present condition of the track and its appointments a recent dispatch to Morning Telegraph says:

"The Saratoga Association's racing plant as it stands today, barring the finishing touches, looks perfect. The establishment is most presentable in every way, and emphasizes the complete success of the brains, money and skill which have combined to make it the greatest racing resort of which the country can boast.

"It is the Ascot of America. The grandstand in its present rejuvenated form, under the guidance of the expert that constructed it close to forty years ago, is ample, commodious and an impressive structure. The view from it exposes, aside from the track itself, a beautiful relief of landscape, full of lawn, verdure and rolling hills. In addition to the grandstand, which originally was 600 feet in length, now is 780, there have been many other improvements. The unsightly board fence that hid the woods and drives from view has been replaced by a smaller iron enclosure, through which a perfect view can be had, as at Sheepshead Bay, of a park that is at once restful and inviting.

"From a racing point of view the improvements have been stupendous. The old Walbaum villa, that nestled in a grove behind the grandstand, has been completely changed and smartened up. There the secretary and his clerks have their offices, and there also is the weighing room and the jockeys' accommodations.

"In the jockeys' room there are twenty-eight dressing apartments, and that number of riders can be accommodated at the same time to prepare for the big fields that are expected. The track itself has undergone immeasurable improvements. Its enlargement has been great and the old course seems to be in the center of it. This is very puzzling to the old timers who have seen it.

"It is in the track that, in the opinion of the horsemen, the highest perfection of this fine establishment has been reached, and they are outspoken in their praises. The main track is a mile and a furlong, laid out much on the lines of Sheepshead Bay. Besides the main track there is a mile chute and a seven furlong one. The mile chute is admirably situated, both from a horseman's and a sight-seer's view. The start is on the right of the grandstand, as at Sheepshead Bay, in full view of the occupants of the stand, where the maneuvers of the horses at the post can be plainly seen.

"The seven furlong chute is a beautiful course. From the start, which is nearly opposite the grandstand, a great stretch of straight track is covered, and after a turn the field comes home over another beautiful piece of straight going.

"The number of horses that have been here for several weeks past, owing to the heavy rains, have had a restful time. Nothing fast has been permitted, and they have had the full benefit of the climate. The W. C. Whitney string, under the charge of J. E. Madden, today was shown to jogging exercise. Yankee, Blue Girl, Gunfire, King Hanover and others were shown. Endurance by Right got easy exercise on the roads."

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

Albert Simons bid up and secured Andy Williams, the winner of the second race, for $1,900. This was an advance of $700 over the horse's entered price.

G. R. Tompkins has sold to F. D. Weir at private terms King Barleycorn. Ed Adack, which was bid up by Mr. Tompkins to $1,800 and secured by him after the horse had won The Olympia Stakes, was resold to J. T. Stewart, his former owner.

Judge Trevelyan stated yesterday that jockey Dupee's ride on Helen Paxton was still being investigated, but the investigation would be concluded before the racing began today and the decision handed down during the afternoon.

W. C. Overton sold the two-year-olds Lendin and St. Minor yesterday to Fred Cook. The reported price for the pair being $4,500.

C. R. Ellison will leave Wednesday for Saratoga, where he will remain throughout the meeting. The only horse that he will have racing at the Springs will be Captain Arnold, which is engaged in some of the two-year-old stakes there. Captain Arnold was shipped last week, in company with Articulate and several other horses, under the management of R. A. Smith.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Banastar, which was temporarily retired early in the season, has rejoined Clarence H. Mackay's stable in training at Sheepshead Bay. Trainer Hill is trying him out at easy exercise, and if there is even a remote chance of his standing the ordeal he will be put in training again.

August Belmont's $25,000 filly by St. Simon—Lady Reel, a half-sister to Hamburg, is reported as reserved by her owner for the Great Filly Stakes, worth $25,000 and the Futurity. Both races will be decided at the Coney Island Jockey Club's fall meeting.

F. Cook, St. Louis. The quotations against Sweet Dream were correct.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

"It can now be put down as a certainty that Ethelbert will not race again. Trainer Joyner yesterday wired Perry Belmont, who is at Newport, that it was useless to try further with the son of Eothen, and he will be permanently retired to the stud," says an eastern exchange. "When Ethelbert was put in training this summer it was the intention of Mr. Belmont to have him especially prepared for The Annual Champion, for which he is eligible as long as he stands up. It was hoped that he would be able to wipe out his defeat by the erratic David Garrick two years ago. Mr. Joyner has tried by all means in his power to get Ethelbert to stand the training ordeal, but is now convinced that his racing days are over. As he does not care to take a chance of breaking the horse down he will be retired without further attempt to train him. Ethelbert will be sent to Lucien Appleby's Silver Brook Stud in New Jersey, where Mr. Belmont has nine broodmares which will be bred to him next season."

There's a dark one in the Futurity this year that from present indications and reports will be a strong factor in the running of the Coney Island classic two-year-old event. It is an old trick of horsemen who have eligibles for the Futurity to keep something up their sleeve for this event. Sometimes they go through and sometimes they do not, but the inclination is irresistible to hold out something for the race from the general public, if that is possible. This year's dark one is Teddy Mack in the string of J. B. Haggin, who just failed to land the inaugural Futurity with the great Salvator, beaten by Proctor Knott.

A prominent horseman just returned from Kentucky brings news of the youngster which will carry the hopes of the Haggin Stable in the Futurity. The fact that the stable has high hopes of Teddy Mack's winning the event has leaked out at the Elmendorf Stud, and it is said that the stable regards the youngster as one of the best 2-year-olds ever owned by them. Teddy Mack is a half brother to High Order. The colt is grandly bred, being a son of Candlemas, the dead sire of this season's good performer, Irish Lad, and out of Tongese, sister to Ben Holladay. He is said to have been the highest tried of all the yearlings owned by Mr. Haggin last year, and even then was picked out as a Futurity winner. Those in the secret at the farm say he has trained grandly this year and is fifteen pounds better than Artvis, Charles Elwood and Sir Voorhies. Mr. Haggin is very anxious to win the Futurity this year, and no two-year-old will ever have gone to the post for the race more carefully prepared than Teddy Mack.

When John McCafferty sold out his horses the observation was made that he was a good man to buy from, meaning that his horses would be found ready to race. In the case of the $5,300 filly Feme Sole, the statement was verified to the letter, as her record-breaking three-quarters in 1:12½ a few days later showed. But a couple of other horses sold at the same sale, Potente and Joe Cobb, have not done so well. Potente has lost several races, heavily backed by his present owner, while Joe Cobb, after being plunged on for a small fortune, was beaten and claimed by W. T. McGrath. In this race Joe Cobb was fouled by the Schorr filly, Eva Russell, which finished second to Dr. Saylor. The stewards promptly disqualified Eva Russell, which was poorly handled by her jockey. Dr. Saylor, the winner, owned by ex-Commissioner Lantry, of New York, is a big slashing colt, by Rossington. He had bad luck in his previous two essays in large fields, but this time he delivered the goods in clever fashion. A good winner on the colt was Thomas Costigan, formerly with John Coleman, of San Francisco.

After Gold Heels had won the Brighton Cup last Saturday and pulled up lame an examination developed an injury in the ankle just under the pastern. Matt Allen, the colt's trainer, and Crit Davis, the handler of Col. James E. Pepper's string, were of the opinion that it was a mere bruise caused by Gold Heels striking himself in making one of the turns, but Curley Brown and half a dozen others pronounced it a bowed tendon. General McLewee was inclined to accept the pessimistic version. The ankle was slowly filled while

HELEN PAXTON'S EMERALD STAKES.

Had Globe II. not stumbled at the fifth jump and fell in the Emerald Handicap yesterday at Harlem, the unusually large Monday gathering present would undoubtedly have seen a clean cut steeplechase in which ten of the best jumpers now in the west contended. When Globe II. fell, Dagmar, which took the jump cleanly, stumbled over the prostrate horse, throwing his rider heavily. Ten timber-toppers ran in this race and the finish was the most exciting and closest seen in a cross-country affair this year. Helen Paxton won by a short head on the post from Flaccus, which beat Falella seven lengths for second place. After half the journey had been run, Flaccus assumed an easy command and appeared the winner after taking the last jump. In fact, he led by a big margin until after passing the last sixteenth post, where he began to tire. Along here Helen Paxton came with a sensational rush and just got up in time to beat Flaccus on the post. The latter was out to the last ounce when passing under the wire. MacLaren was a keen contender until after taking the ninth jump. B. G. Fox ran a good race and fenced cleanly throughout.

Rheta proved to be the best of eleven fillies that faced the barrier in the day's opener, a dash of five furlongs. She ran Mary Glenn into submission in the first three furlongs and then came away without much trouble, winning by two lengths from Gypzene, which beat Philo three and a half lengths for second place. Gypzene ran a sensational race and would probably have won with any kind of racing luck. She was apparently hopelessly beaten off in the first quarter, but moved up fast when entering the stretch and passing horses rapidly finished with a splendid rush. Lady Matchless ran well for four and a half furlongs. Emir showed scant speed and ran nowhere near her best form.

Andy Williams found the track to his liking and running to his best form, beat a mediocre field in the second race. He finished two and a half lengths in front of Dodie S., which beat Trentham one for second place. Dodie S. and Trentham tired fast when challenged by the winner a furlong out. Ernest Parham showed early speed only. He needs a fast track to show at his best.

Corrigan, showing improvement over his last effort, ran away with the purse in the third race, winning in a canter by two and one-half lengths from Marcos, which finished five lengths before Death for second place. Death was pinched out of position at the start and never got fully into his stride until well down the backstretch. Even then he appeared unable to extend himself with freedom and was well spent just before turning into the final quarter.

Brulare, despite the poor ride that was given to her by Beauchamp, took the fifth race easily by two lengths from Haviland, with Bummer an indifferent third. Haviland showed much speed for five furlongs, but tired fast when challenged by the winner a furlong out. Bummer had enough after running well for five and a half furlongs.

Satin Coat, showing a sudden form reversal, beat Ben Chance a nose on the post in the last race, with John McGurk a lapped on third. Satin Coat and Ben Chance fought it out stride for stride all through the last sixteenth, the former winning by the action of the nod. John McGurk seemed to labor in the going in the first seven furlongs, but moved up fast in the last quarter and was gradually wearing down the first two in the closing strides. Henry of Trastamare found the race just a furlong too far for him. Papa Harry ran well for almost seven furlongs.

One of the largest Monday crowds of the season was present and enjoyed a fair day's sport. The track was somewhat sticky and holding, but was drying out fast toward the end of the day's racing. If no more rain falls it should be fairly good, and in that case the good lists of entries are such as to assure excellent racing.

STABLES SCARCE AT SARATOGA.

The following notice has been issued by the executive committee of the Saratoga Association: "As the improvements of the Saratoga track and grounds have involved the removal of much of the stabling to new locations and also as the pending applications have required the construction of a considerable number of new stables, some of which are not now completed, notice is directed to be given by the executive committee that stables of horses should not hereafter be shipped to Saratoga without owners have personally received word from A. McL. Farlocker, Saratoga Springs, that stabling has not only been reserved and assigned, but is ready for occupancy."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Gold Heels was walked about the paddock preparatory to his return to his stable, and he limped painfully on his way home.

Such high-class thoroughbred sires as Midlothian, Albert, Hyder Ali and Top Gallant, were at one time owned in Canada, but their owners couldn't earn for their services enough cash to pay expenses, and in every case they were sold for small money to go to the United States, and there they served many famous performers whose names have figured as winners of leading turf events.

The New York World says that Charley Ballard, the jockey, is now one of the most successful trainers in England. Before he left for Great Britain he could not secure a mount in a month. When his fortune was at lowest ebb he sailed for England to ride for "Gene" Leigh. As soon as he arrived he was offered a few horses to train. He was successful from the start, and last year cleared $20,000. His winnings this season promise to exceed that amount.

John W. Schorr received word Saturday morning that the two-year-old Rightful, which had been sent to Saratoga with others of the string, was sick. The colt had considerable fever and his temperature was at 105, a fact that worried Mr. Schorr not a little.

Rightful is by Pirate of Penzance—Early Morn, and is, therefore, a half-brother to the crack two-year-old filly of last season, Endurance by Right, which was also in the Schorr stable until sold to William C. Whitney late in the season.

The pick of the Schorr stable, including Rightful, Janeway, Bob McLean, Judith Campbell, the sister to Reina; Lady Schorr, H. L. Coleman and others, are now at Saratoga, and Mr. Schorr is very much afraid that the sickness may reach others in the barn.

The horses were being especially prepared for the Saratoga campaign, and it would be a distinct loss to Mr. Schorr if anything should occur that would prevent their taking part in the meeting.

THE SARATOGA HANDICAP.

Next Monday the Saratoga Handicap of the guaranteed value of $10,000 will be decided over the new Saratoga track. The weights assigned the horses engaged appear below. Gold Heels is top-weight, but will not run. Articulate's winning Chicago career has earned him fourth place among the high weights and of the three-year-olds Aladdin has been weighted to be the best of all except Major Daingerfield and six pounds better than Hyphen, which established a new record at a mile and a sixteenth a few days ago. The weights and terms are as follows:

The Saratoga Handicap of $10,000—For three-year-olds and upward. By subscription of $200 each, half forfeit, or only $25 if declared by June 1. To the winner, $7,000; to the second, $2,000; to the third, $1,000. Weights to be announced ten days before the race. Winners of a race of the value of $4,000 after the publication of the weights to carry five pounds extra. One mile and three sixteenths.

LOS ANGELES RACING.

A change of management has been made in the affairs of the Los Angeles race meeting, whereby the directors of the Sixth District Agricultural Society transfer to a new association the forthcoming fair in October, together with all the engagements of the running, trotting and pacing horses for that meeting. The new concern is to be known as the Los Angeles Racing Association and the incorporation papers are now being prepared by one of the leading law firms of Los Angeles. J. W. Brooks, who for several years has been the efficient official handicapper of the California Jockey Club, will be the manager of the new concern, and that well-known newspaper writer and genial gentleman, Capt. Thomas B. Merry (Hidalgo) probably secretary. The directors will be selected from the very first citizens of Los Angeles, gentlemen who are in every way identified with the growth and development of the great metropolis of southern California. It is proposed to make the fair and race meeting which begins October 11, this year, and continues two weeks, a grand success in every way. Special inducements will be offered horsemen and the best horses in training will be secured for the meeting. Probably no man on the Pacific Coast has a more thorough knowledge of racing in all its branches than Mr. Brooks, and Captain Merry is an encyclopaedia in regard to all matters pertaining to the thoroughbred. Last year he visited New York, England and Paris, and saw the great events decided by the thoroughbreds on the leading race courses of the world, and is therefore prepared to make the Los Angeles meeting up to date in every way. The meeting there this year will be the greatest in the history of racing in Southern California.—San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman.

OUR SHEETS ARE ALWAYS ON FILE AT THE DAILY RACING FORM OFFICE.

Andy Williams, 5 to 2
Helen Paxton, 6 to 1
Rheta, 1 to 1

The above were our straight winners yesterday.

BEN CHANCE, 8 TO 1,
was named for a heavy place play.

4 to 1 SPECIAL TODAY.

This one will win by a block. Remember our previously advertised 30 to 1 shot goes

WEDNESDAY

There is no guess about this one. Our track expert informs us that never in his twenty years as a practical horseman had he ever known of such a certainty.

TERMS $1 DAILY; $4 ANY SIX DAYS.

Delivered to any city address before 12 o'clock and for sale at news stands southeast and northwest corners Clark and Madison Sts.

30 to 1 Shot Today

This dark horse has been especially prepared for a large coup today. Yesterday my patrons only received six selections:

Rheta, Andy Williams, 3-1, Brulare
and John McGurk

who was easily the best horse. I also gave Kalif, 20 to 1; Cornwall, 2nd. Remember, I am using a winning system which I lately have adopted. If you desire to beat them you should not fail to send me your subscription and have me place your name on my extra special list.

Terms $1.00 Daily, $5.00 Weekly.

Winner—B. f. by Lamplighter—Senorita (trained by R. Tucker).
Went to post at 2:30. At post at 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second handily. Rheta ran Mary Glenn into early submission and then came away as her rider pleased. She revelled in the soft going and ran to her best form. Gypzene ran a sensational race. She seemed to be hopelessly beaten in the first quarter but closed up fast on the field in the final quarter and finished with a splendid rush. Philo outstayed Lady Matchless in the last sixteenth for third place. The latter showed early speed, but was tiring fast at the end. Emir ran a dull race in going that seemed suited to her. Mary Glenn showed much early speed.

Scratched—33724 Watoma, 115; 33676 Mda, 115; 33754 Our Bessie, 112; (33696) Hindi, 105.

Overweights—Belle Mahone, 1 pound.

Rheta, show, out. Gypzene, show, 6 to 5. Philo, show, 4 to 1.

Time, 25, 53¹/₂, 1:21, 1:49, 1:56.

Winner—Br. c. by Kingstock—Carmenita (trained by W. Williams).
Went to post at 3:05. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Andy Williams moved up fast turning for home and came away without any trouble in the final eighth. Dodie S. tired fast when a furlong out. She ran a dull race in going that seemed suited to her. Trentham improved suddenly and was a keen contender for seven furlongs. Simon was right there for six and a half furlongs. Ernest Parham showed early speed. He runs to his best form on a fast track. The winner, entered for $1,200, was bid up to $1,900 and bought by A. Simons.

Scratched—33919 Senora Maria, 94; 33919 Ravensbury, 104; 33919 Rollick II, 99; 32852 Miracle II, 109.

Winner—Br. c. by Sain—Ada Reese (trained by "Doc" Riddle).
Went to post at 3:30. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Corrigan found the track to his liking and ran to his best form. He was never really fully extended. Marcos was ridden hard all through the last quarter, but without avail, as the winner simply played with him. Death was all tangled up at the start and never got into his stride until turning into the backstretch. He ran well for six furlongs, but labored hard in the final quarter and was thoroughly beaten a furlong out. He probably runs best on a fast track. Frank M. might just as well have remained in his stall.

Scratched—33936 Jiminez, 107; 33500 Wainamoinen, 98; (33937) Harry New, 98; (33920) Orontas, 110; (33701) Toah, 107.

Overweights—Corrigan, 1 pound.

No show betting on first three.

Winner—B. m. by Tom Paxton—Helen Bancroft (trained by E. R. Rodgers).
Went to post at 4:00. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won in a drive; second easily. Helen Paxton came with a great rush at the end and nipped Flaccus on the post. The latter was sprawling badly in the closing strides and was out to the last ounce. Falella tired fast down the stretch. MacLaren appeared to have a good winning chance approaching the eleventh jump, but tired rapidly when turned for home. B. G. Fox ran a good race and was a sharp contender up to the ninth jump. Globe II. went down heavily at the fifth jump and Dagmar fell over him after taking the hazard. Except for the fumble of Globe II. the race was clean cut throughout.

Winner—B. m. by Bradford—Hard to Tell (Zornetza) (trained by W. W. Darden).
Went to post at 4:30. Off at first break to an excellent start. Won easily; second the same. Brulare moved up fast in the final eighth and passed Haviland with ease in the last sixteenth. Haviland showed a lot of speed and was much the best of the others. Bummer was a keen contender for five and a half furlongs. He tired fast in the closing strides. Rubus ran well for five furlongs.

Winner—Ch. f, by Hastings—Lady Rosemary (trained by J. Boden).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second handily. Rosetint was in a soft spot. Away running, she easily retained her advantage from start to finish. Mount Kisco was prominent throughout and finished gamely. Michaelmas closed up well in the stretch. Embarrassment, a good looker, made up much ground and finished with a rush. Dark Planet was going strongly at the end. Damon, badly interfered with in the last furlong, ran in improved form. Sovereign broke and ran green and has been highly tried. Watch him. Cloche d'Or has worked a half in 48 seconds flat.
Scratched—33234 Fracas, 112; 33835 Knocknagow, 112; 33881 President, 112; 33679 Intervention, 109. Rosetint, show, out. Mount Kisco, show, 4 to 5. Michaelmas, show, 8 to 12.

Winner—B. f, by Bathampton—Bygone (trained by L. S. Burridge).
Went to post at 2:55. At post 5 minutes. Start struggling. Won handily; second driving. Past broke flatfooted and was compelled to go wide on all turns, but finished strongly and won going away. Choate, a fast beginner, showed the way to the stretch and held on well in the final drive. Hindsdale ran a good race. Bessie McCarthy disliked the soft going and was outrun and in close quarters for the first half, but moved up with a rush in the last three furlongs. Caithness was pocketed and interfered with around the last turn and in the stretch. Loone and Mosketto both failed to stay. Animosity, evidently stale, quit after going six furlongs.
Scratched—33720 Merry Maker, 108; 33907 Lone Fisherman, 106; 33839 Vesuvia, 106; 33804 Ilium, 103; 33708 Gertrude Lodge, 101; 33345 Frank McKee, 99; 33260 Lord Radnor, 96; 33733 Worry, 91.

Time, 1:26, 2:46, 48, 1:14.

Winner—Ch. h, by Bathampton—Sadie (trained by F. Dubois).
Went to post at 3:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second handily. Sadducee, in rare form, waited through the first half hard held and when called on went to the front like a flash and was easing up in the last furlong. Ben Mac Dhui broke slowly and under a bad ride fell out of contention on the backstretch. He raced wide around the field on the turn and finished strongly and was easily second best. Meistersinger displayed improved speed and held on well. Clonmell failed to stay after being prominent for the first half. Recent long races have probably hurt him. Isia quit in the stretch and is still short.
Scratched—33878 St. Finnan, 127; 33921 Belle of Lexington, 122; 33804 Ilium, 114.

Winner—B. c, by St. Maxim—Frances S. (trained by R. Miller).
Went to post at 3:40. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Francesco is of stake class. He forced a tremendously fast pace throughout and won going away. Advance Guard broke slowly and moved up fast on the far turn, but evidently was not keyed up, as he failed to make good at the end in his usual decisive fashion. Ethics came from last place at the half and joined issue right at the end, but was outgamed by Advance Guard in a hard final drive. Sadie S. failed to stay. Cuspidor and St. Finnan were outclassed.

Winner—B. g, by Lissak—Mag Rapture (trained by W. Smith).
Went to post at 4:15. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Malden secured a lucky start and outpaced and outstayed his field throughout. Cornwall challenged strongly in the last quarter and barely held his own. Oclawaha, in light, outstayed Songster. The latter showed marked improvement. Rossignol finished fast. Lucent closed a big gap from a bad start. Jim Tully, nearly left, went around the big field on the turns, but had no chance and was eased up at the end.

Winner—B. g, by Executor—Kisbern (trained by H. J. Morris).
Went to post at 4:45. At post 3 minutes. Start struggling. Won handily; second driving. Kalif practically forced the pace throughout and stole a long and winning lead at the beginning of the final quarter, finished in great form and ran the best race of his career. Pearl Finder was hopelessly pocketed on the stretch turn and when given clear sailing came too late to overhaul the winner. Leonid was very sore and under a hard drive to keep up after being nearly left at the post. He was badly messed about and interfered with by Handicapper quitting in front of him at the end. The latter was unable to sustain his fine speed for more than seven furlongs. Prince Richard went well. Peninsula's chances were practically destroyed when he was carried very wide on the first turn. Leonid was claimed by H. T. Griffin for $1,700.

Scratched—33853 Black Dick, 104; 33341 Justice, 98; 33836 Early Eve, 97; 33907 Fair Knight, 96. Kalif, show, 8 to 5. Pearl Finder, show, 1 to 4. Leonid, show, out.

Winner—Ch. g, by Bolero—Idlewild (trained by E. G. Brown).
Went to post at 2:50. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Boidle was best ridden and got up in the final stride. He came with a rush in the final furlong and Robertson out-rode Adams when it came to a finish. King Ford would have won with riders reversed. He ran a good race and hung on gamely when it came to a drive. Kaslo faltered in the closing strides. Meggs tired at the end. Lathrop was bothered by the blinkers she wore, which worked loose and blinded her. She threw her rider and ran away four miles and a quarter after the finish.

Scratched—33866 Presgrave, 103.

Overweights—Boidle, 5 pounds; King Ford, 2; Birdie May, 2; Maria Bolton, 2. Boidle, show, 1 to 2. King Ford, show, evens. Kaslo, show, out. Meggs, show, 7 to 10.

33978 SECOND RACE—5-8 Mile. Purse $250. 2-year-olds. Allowances.
